COURSES FOR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION PRACTITIONERS

(leading to the BCS Practitioner FOI qualification)

Who is Amberhawk?

Amberhawk is the leading training company in the field of freedom of information; our exam statistics demonstrate that, year on year, we have a track record of delivering success.

What does the training achieve?

The aim of all our FOI/EIR courses is to produce a confident and knowledgeable FOI specialist who understands the law and is able to apply it sensibly and practically. In particular, employing an information governance officer trained by Amberhawk in freedom of information law will be an essential part of successful compliance by a public authority. The high standard of content and delivery in our training explains why the vast majority of delegates who opt to sit the BCS exam with us pass it first time around, and why we can show so many testimonials from a wide range of public sector bodies (accessible from the home-page of our website).

Who delivers the FOI training?

Training is delivered by the directors of Amberhawk, Dr Chris Pounder and Sue Cullen, who are leading experts in the field of FOI. Their expertise in this field and in information law in general is detailed in their CVs (accessible from the home page of the Amberhawk web-site).

Overview of the days making up the FOI Practitioner Course

CONTENT OF THE FOI COURSE

Day 1: Course FN1 - Introduction to FOI

Origins and outline of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Scope and application: who does it apply to and what information is covered? Twofold obligation (confirm or deny and to communicate), and two routes of access to information. Enforcement by the Information Commissioner. Publication Schemes and records management.

DAY 2: Course FN2 - Access Requests

Procedure for making and handling requests; timing and communication; duty to advise and assist, and s.45 Code of Practice. Exemption for excessively costly requests, including the FOI Fees Regulations, and for repeat and vexatious requests. Refusals and complaints.

DAY 3: Course FN3 - The FOI Exemptions

Function of the exemptions in FOIA. Class and prejudice exemptions; absolute and qualified exemptions. The public interest test. Introduction to the full range of exemptions in FOIA, with detailed study of the most important exemptions, such as for confidential information and for commercial interests.

DAY 4: Course FN4 - Data Protection and the FOIA

Introduction to the basics of the Data Protection Act 2018, to the principles in the GDPR and to how personal data is defined and protected. Consideration of personal data in the hands of public authorities and the need to protect privacy in the context of an FOI request. Detailed study of the exemption for personal data. Consideration of how the data protection principles apply to a disclosure of personal data under the FOIA (and under the EIR).

DAY 5: Course FN5 - The Environmental Information Regulations

Definition of “environmental information”. Comparison of the EIR with the FOIA pointing up the differences (scope, application, procedure, charging). Study of the EIR exceptions. Brief introduction to the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005. Tutorial for the BCS FOI examination.

FOI Mock exam, Exam Debrief Tutorial and BCS exam

The Mock Exam is a 3hr 20 minute written exam which can be taken at your office or in London; the exam is marked by the course tutors. This is followed by a day-long Mock exam Debrief Tutorial which prepares the delegates for the BCS exam by identifying their own errors in exam technique as evidenced in their own performance. The BCS exam usually takes place within a fortnight after the Debrief Tutorial.
