

SPRING UPDATE SESSIONS (London, Manchester and Edinburgh)

The aim of these sessions is to give delegates informal opportunities to keep up-to-date with current developments in data protection and to exchange views and experiences with colleagues working in this field. Data protection experts from Amberhawk and Pinsent Masons (e.g. Rosemary Jay, Chris Pounder, Sue Cullen, Louise Townsend and William Malcolm) will be at hand throughout the day, and the agenda allows time for you to raise your important questions and issues.

These Updates fall just before a General Election and all political parties will put forward something in their manifestos on rights; whether it is “countering the surveillance state” or a fully fledged a “Bill of Rights”. So what is the relationship between “rights” as expressed in the Human Rights and privacy? Turn up and find out! Book early as we expect a high demand, especially given the topicality and quality our invited guest speakers.

COST (£95 PER HEAD), DATES AND LOCATIONS

The cost per delegate of attending an update session is a recession busting £95 plus VAT! The sessions will take place at Pinsent Masons offices: 12 April 2010 at 30 Aylesbury Street, London, EC1R 0ER; 26 April 2010 at 3 Hardman Street, Manchester M3 3AU; 10 May 2010 at 139 Fountainbridge Edinburgh, EH3 9QG.
